Intro 1

There were

Verse 1

two of us, so glamorous it was he and i and i

In separable not really the dependable types

And we were chasing the same mirage the same good thing The same lost cause Oh We were something better than this Oh And I am wondering when you talk about

Chorus 1

Outlaws oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh I wonder if it is us oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh You can see me there I'm the one in the big, Big chair, it's all written in the folklore I'm the one that knows That knows how to keep

score

Intro 2

Hey

Verse 2

Where are we a gain? The same old bar in the same old town The Songs sung by the same old clown type

And we were chasing the same daydream The same long need The same lost theme oh we were something better than here oh And I am thinking when you talk about

Chorus 2

Outlaws oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh I wonder if it is us oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh You can
written in the folklore I'm the one that knows That knows how to keep
score

Bridge

Once upon a time The good girl, the glory boy ran away and lately it seems like it is just everyday. when you talk about

Chorus 3

Outlaws oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh I wonder if it is us oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh You can
written in the folklore I'm the one that knows That knows how to keep
score

Outro

oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh I'm the one that knows That knows how to keep score oh oh oh I'm the one that knows That knows how to keep score
